Etiquette related to intention

Etiquette related to intention

وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ حُنَفَاءَ وَيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُوا الزَّكَاةَ ۚ

وَذَلِكَ دِينُ الْقَيِّمَةِ - 98:5

- ▶ "And they were commanded not but that they should worship Allah and worship none but Him Alone (abstaining from ascribing partners to Him)." (98:5)
 - ▶ "Verily, all actions are but driven by intention and for everyone is what he intended." (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)
 - ▶ "Certainly, Allah does not look at your shapes or wealth. But He only looks at your hearts and deeds." (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)
 - ▶ "He, who seriously considered doing a good deed but did not do it. will have one good deed recorded for him." (Muslim)

Etiquette related to intention

- ▶ Intention is an essential component of deeds and a condition for the validity of the deed.
- ▶ Intention is not simply the statement of the tongue, nor is it simply a thought in the mind. Instead, it is the driving force in the heart towards a deed that is in accord with a sound goal of bringing about benefit or repelling harm, presently or in the future.

Etiquette related to intention

- ▶ A permissible act can may become an act of obedience, worthy of reward and recompense.
- ▶ At the same time, an act of obedience, if it is void of a pious intention, becomes an act of disobedience worthy of punishment and burden.

Example:

- ▶ An act of disobedience can not be changed into an act of obedience simply due to a good intention.

Example:

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

► وَمَا بِكُمْ مِّنْ نِّعْمَةٍ فَمِنَ اللَّهِ ۝ - 16:53

- “And whatever blessing or good thing you have, it is from Allah” (16:53)

► وَأَتَاكُم مِّنْ كُلِّ مَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُ ۚ وَإِن تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ لَا تَحْصُوهَا ۚ 14:34

- "And He gave you of all that you asked for. and if you count the Blessings of Allah, never will you be able to count them.” (14:34)

► فَاذْكُرُونِي أَذْكُرْكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِي وَلَا تَكْفُرُونِ - 2:152

- “Therefore remember Me [by prayer and glorification], I will remember you. Be grateful to Me and never be ungrateful to Me.” (2:152)

Example:

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

- ▶ There is no escape or fleeing from Him.
- ▶ There is no refuge or shelter except in Allah Himself. Therefore, the Muslim flees to Allah and throws himself before Him. He leaves his affairs with Allah and puts his trust in Him. – That is the Meaning of Islam.
- ▶ “There is not a moving (living) creature but He has grasp of its forelock.” (11:56)

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

- ▶ Consider Allah's Mercy upon you and upon all of His creation.
- ▶ Desire to have more of that mercy. - This is a part of Tawakkul.
- ▶ It is not a proper behavior whatsoever to despair of receiving more of His Mercy which encompasses everything.

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

▶ Allah has stated:

“My Mercy embraces all things.” (7:156)

▶ اللَّهُ لَطِيفٌ بِعِبَادِهِ - 42:19

▶ “Allah is very Gracious and Kind to His slaves.”
(42:19)

▶ “Despair not of the mercy of Allah.” (39:53)

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

- ▶ Think about Allah while disobeying Him as if Allah's threat is already applying to you and His punishment has already come upon you due to your action.
- ▶ Think about Allah while obeying Him and following His Laws as if His Promise has already come true for you and Allah's Pleasure has already been bestowed upon you.

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

- ▶ It is also not proper behavior for a person to fear Allah and obey Him while suspecting that he will not be rewarded for the good deeds he performed or that he shall not be recompensed for his obedience and acts of worship.

Etiquette and Behavior towards Allah

- ▶ Must be thankful to Lord for the bounties He has given.
- ▶ Must be shy towards Lord whenever leaning toward committing a sin. – Nafs is of 3 types- Khabisah, Lawwamah, Mutmainnah.
- ▶ Must sincerely turn to Lord, put trust in Him, hope for His Mercy and fear His punishment.
- ▶ Must have good expectations concerning Allah with respect to Allah fulfilling His Promises and carrying out His threats for whoever He wills of His slaves.

Etiquette with Respect to the Word of Allah, the Noble Qur'an

Etiquette with Respect to Al-Qur'an

- ▶ “Read the Qur'an, for it shall come as an intercessor for its companion on the Day of Resurrection.” (Muslim)
- ▶ “The best of you is he who learns the Qur'an and teaches others.” (Al-Bukhari)

Etiquette with Respect to Al-Qur'an

► Etiquette with reciting the Qur'an:

1. Recite it under the best circumstances, including being in a state of purity, facing the Qiblah and sitting in a respectable, honorable manner.
 2. Recite the Qur'an slowly and not be hasty in recitation.
 3. Must have fear of Allah and humility while reciting the Qur'an. He should demonstrate sorrow and should cry, or should try to cry.
- Example: Tilawat of Mekkha and Madinah.

Etiquette with Respect to Al-Qur'an

4. Also beautify voice while reading the Qur'an.
5. Recite in private if you fear that you would be reciting for show or reputation only or if you were to disturb those people who were praying.
6. Recite the Qur'an while thinking about and pondering over its meaning.

Etiquette with Respect to Al-Qur'an

7. Should not be one who recites the Qur'an while he is heedless and going against what it says. In that case, he could be the cause for his own cursing by himself.
 - For example, if he reads the Verse:
 - ▶ “Curse of Allah upon those who lie.” (3:61)
 - ▶ And he is a liar or a wrongdoer, then he is simply cursing himself.

Etiquette with Respect to Allah's Messenger

Etiquette with Respect to Allah's Messenger

1. One must have complete obedience to him, following in his footsteps, and following his example in every matter related to the Hereafter and this life.
 - ▶ “O you who believe! Obey Allah and obey the Messenger (Muhammad).” (47:33)

2. One cannot love, give love, respect and honor to anyone more than one does for the Prophet SM regardless of who that other one might be.
 - ▶ “By the One in whose hand is my soul, none of you truly believes until I am more beloved to him than his father, child and all of mankind.” (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)

Etiquette with Respect to Allah's Messenger

3. One must have love and loyalty for whoever has given his love and loyalty to the Prophet SM- Similarly, he must oppose anyone who opposes him. One must also be pleased with whatever the Prophet SM is pleased with and be displeased with whatever displeases the Prophet.
4. One must show due honor and respect to the Prophet's name whenever it is mentioned. One should make prayers and ask for blessings upon him. One should also consider the greatness of his manners and merits.

Etiquette with Respect to Allah's Messenger

- ▶ “O you who believe! Raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet SM, nor speak aloud to him in talk as you speak aloud to one another, lest your deeds may be rendered fruitless while you perceive it not.” (49:2)
- ▶ “Make not the calling of the Messenger (Muhammad) among you as your calling of one another.” (24:63)

Etiquette with Respect to Allah's Messenger

5. One must believe everything that the Prophet SM has stated, whether related to matters of the religion or of this world, including the unseen of both this world and the Hereafter.
6. One should revive his Sunnah, openly practice his law, convey his message and fulfill his bequeaths or advice.

Etiquette with Respect to Allah's Messenger

7. One should lower one's voice at his grave and in his mosque, for the one whom Allah has honored to visit them. One should show respect to him by stopping at his grave (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, his family and companions).
8. One should love the righteous people and demonstrate loyalty to them due to the Prophet's love for them. And one should hate the evildoers and oppose them due to his hate for them.

Behavior towards Oneself

Behavior towards Oneself

- ▶ “Indeed, he succeeds who purifies his ownself. And indeed he fails who corrupts his ownself.” (91:9-10)
- ▶ In order to purify it and make it wholesome, one follows the following steps:

Behavior towards Oneself

I. Repentance:

- ▶ Ceasing of all sins and acts of disobedience, feeling remorse for every sin one committed in the past and firm conviction not to return to perform any sin for the rest of one's life. Allah has said in the Qur'an:
- ▶ “O you who believe! Turn to Allah with sincere repentance! It may be that your Lord will exiate from you your sins and admit you into Gardens under which rivers flow.” (66:8)

Behavior towards Oneself

2. Watchfulness and being on guard:

- ▶ Realize that you are being watched by Allah. Keep adhering to this belief and understanding in every moment of your life until you become absolutely certain that Allah is seeing everything you are doing, knows all of your secrets, and is watching all of your actions.
- ▶ “...And Know that Allah knows what is in your minds, so fear Him...” (2:235)
- ▶ “..Surely Allah is Ever an All-Watcher over you.” (4:125)

Behavior towards Oneself

3. Taking Account of Oneself:

- ▶ "O you who believe! Fear Allah. Let every person look to what he has sent forth for the morrow, and fear Allah. Verily, Allah is All-Aware of what you do." (59:18)
- ▶ "Verily, I repent to Allah and seek His forgiveness one hundred times in a day." (Muslim)
- ▶ "Take account of yourself before [your deeds] are weighed." (At-Tirmidhi)

Behavior towards Oneself

4. Struggle and Striving Against Oneself:

- ▶ “And I free not myself (from the blame). Verily, the (human) self is inclined to evil...” (12:53)
- ▶ “The best of people is one who lives a long life and whose deeds are good.” (At-Tirmidhi)

Etiquette towards One's Parents

Etiquette towards One's Parents

- ▶ “And your Lord has decreed that you worship none but Him. And that you be dutiful to your parents. If one of them or both of them attain old age in your life, say not to them a word of disrespect, nor shout at them but address them in terms of honor. And lower unto them the wing of submission and humility through mercy, and say, “My Lord! Bestow on them Your Mercy as they did bring me up when I was young.” (17:23-24)

Etiquette towards One's Parents

- ▶ “And We have enjoined on man (to be dutiful and good) to his parents. His mother bore him in weakness and hardship upon weakness and hardship, and his weaning is in two years give thanks to Me and to your parents. Unto Me is the final destination.”
(31:14)
- ▶ “A child has not fulfilled all of his responsibilities toward his parent unless the father is a slave and the son buys him and sets him free.”(Muslim)

Etiquette towards One's Parents

► A man from the Ansar came to Allah's Messenger SM and asked him: "O Allah's Messenger is there any responsibility that I have to fulfill toward my parents after they have passed away?" Allah's Messenger SM replied, "Yes, there are four matters:

1. Pray upon them, ask forgiveness for them.
2. Fulfill their promises.
3. Honor their close friends.
4. Keep ties with those concerning whom you have no relations except through (your parents).

This is what is left upon you of good behavior toward them after they die." (Ahmad)

Etiquette towards One's Parents

1. Obey them in everything they order to do or prohibit, as long as it is not in disobedience to Allah SWT or in contradiction to the Shari'ah.
2. Respect them and honor them in all of their affairs.
 - ▶ Be very kind and gracious to them and honor them in speech and action.
 - ▶ Do not get mad at them or raise one's voice above their voices.
 - ▶ Do not walk in front of them nor favor one's spouse or child over them.
 - ▶ Do not call them by their names but, instead, say, "O my father" or "O my mother."

Etiquette towards One's Parents

3. Do the best to be as dutiful as possible to them and give them all kinds of obedience and goodness
4. Pray for them, ask forgiveness for them, fulfill their promises and honor their close friends.

Etiquette Towards One's Children

 6. This continues until the child is married off, at which time he will give him the choice to stay under his guardianship or to move off on his own.

Etiquette Towards One's Children

- ▶ “O you who believe! Ward off yourselves and your families against a Fire (Hell) whose fuel is men and stones.’ (66:6)
- ▶ “Honor your children and bring them up well. Verily, your children are a gift for you.” (Ibn Majah)
- ▶ "Be equitable among your children when it comes to giving to them. If I were to give preference to anyone, I would give preference to the females." (Al-Baihaqi)

Etiquette Towards One's Children

- ▶ “Teach the child to pray at the age of seven and beat them to do it at the age of ten. And separate them in their bedding.” (Abu Dawud)
- ▶ “Marry from the pious households, for verily genetics has a strong effect.” Once a bedouin was showing his children what a favor he did to them by choosing their mother, he told them:
- ▶ “The first good thing I did towards you was my choosing of a good noble family whose ancestors were chaste.”

Etiquette Towards Siblings

Etiquette Towards Siblings

- ▶ Manners towards one's siblings should be like behavior towards one's parents and children.
- ▶ "The right of the elder sibling over the younger sibling is like the right of the father over his child."(Al-Baihaqi)
- ▶ "Be dutiful towards your mother and your father, and your sister and your brother, then those closest to you, followed by those next closest to you."(Al-Hakim)

Etiquette Between Spouses

Etiquette Between Spouses

- ▶ “And they (women) have rights (over their husbands as regards living expenses) similar (to those of their husbands) over them (as regards obedience and respect) to what is reasonable, But men have a degree (of responsibility) over them.” (2:228)
- ▶ “Verily, you have rights over your wives and your wives have rights over you.” (Abu Dawud)

Etiquette Between Spouses

▶ Common Rights:

1. Loyalty and honesty: Be truthful and honest.
