Ques 1:

What is Eemaan? How is Eemaan?

Ans: Eemaan is simply concerned with faiths and beliefs. It is to believe in Allah, the Angels, the Prophets and Messengers of Allah, the Divine Scriptures, the Day of Resurrection and Al-Qadaa' Wal Qadar (Divine Preordainment).

Eemaan is not visible, not apparent. It does not have any direct visual representation. The faiths and beliefs that we truly hold within our hearts is surely not visible to anyone except Allah the All Knowing (الْعَلِيم).

Ques 2:

What is Islam? How is Islam?

Ans: Islam comprises our deeds after we believe in Allah and His Messenger Muhammad (PBUH). Islam is, to testify that there is no God worthy of worship but Allah and Muhammad (PBUH) is the messenger of Allah, to pray Salah, to fast during the month of Ramadan, to pay Zakat and to perform Hajj if we are able.

Islam is visible and apparent. It is concerned with worshiping Allah, with our deeds and actions which have direct visual representation.

Ques 3:

What is the basic difference between Eemaan & Islam?

Ans: The basic difference between Eemaan & Islam is that one is not visible and the other is. Eemaan is not visible nor apparent. Islam is visible and apparent.

Eemaan is the beliefs we hold within our hearts which we can't see. It's about faith, about truly believing in the one true God Allah. Islam is about our deeds, the acts of worship we do after we testify that Allah is the one true God and Muhammad (PBUH) is the messenger of Allah. So Islam has certain direct visual representations.

Ques 4:

Illustrate the elements should be avoided in Tawhidul Asma Was Sifat?

1) Tashbeeh تشبيه (Comparison) : Comparing the attributes of the creator to the attributes of the created.

2) Tahreef تحريف (Distortion) : Through false interpretation, change or alteration. Such as the alteration of the wordings of the names and attributes, by adding to them, subtracting from them or changing the grammatical constructions.

3) Ta'teel التعطيل (Negation) : Negating Divine attributes, and denying their existence in Allah, such as negating the perfection of Allah by denying His names and attributes, or negating the proper conduct towards Allah by abandoning His worship, or barring the created from its Creator, such as those who deny the fact that Allah created the universe and claim that it developed and evolved of its accord.

4) Takyef تكيف : Ascertaining the manner in which Allah's attributes take form and also determining their essence.

Ques 5:

Explain the three areas of Tawheed briefly.

Ans: Faith in Allah incorporates Tawheed in three areas:

- 1) Tawheed Rububiyyah
- 2) Tawheed Uluhiyyah
- 3) Tawheed Asma' Was Sifaat

1) Tawheed Rububiyyah: Tawheed Rububiyyah means attesting that Allah is the absolute executor of actions in the universe: through creation, organization, administration, enforcement of change, increase, decrease, provision of life and death, and other actions in which none is associated with Allah, Glorious and Mighty is He.

Allah (swt) says,

“Then, to Allah belongs [all] praise – Lord of the heavens and Lord of the earth, Lord of the worlds. - Al Jaathiya (verse -36)”

2) Tawheed Uluhiyyah: This means that the believer holds the firm conviction that Allah (swt) is the True God and that there is no god but Him, and that he directs his worship only to him. This Tawheed is based upon worship that is dedicated, both in its inward and outward expressions, exclusively towards Allah, so that no aspect of it is directed to other than Him.

Allah (swt) says,

“I created the jinn and humans for nothing else but that they may serve Me.” - Al Zaariyat (verse -56)

3) Tawheed Asma' Was Sifaat: This Tawheed means the firm conviction that Allah, the Glorious and Mighty, is characterized by all the attributes of perfection, is above all defects and deficiencies, and that He alone is distinguished from the rest of creation by these characteristics. This Tawheed is achieved by attesting to all the names and attributes Allah (swt) reported about Himself, and those confirmed by His Prophet (ﷺ) in the Qur'an and Sunnah.

Allah (swt) says,

“Allah—there is no god ‘worthy of worship’ except Him. He has the Most Beautiful Names.” -Al Taha (verse -8)

Ques 6:

Explain Trinity in light of the concept of Tawheed ul Asma' Was Sifaat.

Most Christians believe there is only one God, who is experienced as three persons, also known as the Trinity . These three persons are the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

The doctrine of the Trinity in Christianity holds that God is a single essence who exists consubstantially and co-eternally as a perichoresis of three separate persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. According to Islam any "plurality" inside God, is a denial of Tawheed and is contrary to the revelation given in Muslim scripture.

The Tawheed of names and attributes means that the Muslim should place Allah above all imperfections, deficits and deficiencies. Allah is to be described only by the attributes with which He had described Himself or with which His Prophet (ﷺ) had described Him. And He is to be named only by the names with which He had named Himself or with which His prophet (ﷺ) had named Him.

Tawheed of names and attributes is damaged by various elements which should be avoided by Muslims. One of them is Comparison (Tasbeeh): comparing the attributes of the creator to the attributes of the created. So Trinity falls into Comparison and should be avoided and thus Trinity is a violation of the Tawheed ul Asma' Was Sifaat.

Ques 26:Why do we worship Allah although Worship does not benefit Him?

'O people, worship your Lord who created you and those before you, so that you may become God-fearing' (2:21)

Worship is the key to knowing Allah. It is a cycle – the more we worship, the more we know Him, and the more we know Him, the more we are inclined to worship Him. Indeed our raison d'être is to worship Allah Almighty.

There are people who say that they believe in Allah in their heart but they do not need to worship Him. This is akin to saying I love my parents in my heart, but I don't need to call them. Worship is the connection between Allah Almighty and mankind. Though He is nearer to us than our jugular vein, He requires us to make a formal and conscious effort as well as devote time to focus our minds on Him alone.

Though Allah Almighty Himself says that nothing we can do either benefits or harms Him, this ayah is an explicit command to worship Him. It is not a choice left to us whether we feel like it or not. Though we may feel connected to Him as we feel connected to our children, being connected while multi-tasking is not the same as spending 'quality time' with either Allah Almighty or our children. So we are required to make the effort and give our full attention to Allah Almighty at specific times during the day.
