What do you know about Salah????

The Quarantine history.

The Muslim scholar of Medicine, 'Ibn Sina (980-1037)' suspected that some diseases were spread by microorganisms,... To prevent human-to-human contamination, he came up with the method of isolating people for 40 days. He called this method al-Arba'iniya ("The Forty").

Traders from Venice heard of his successful method and took this knowledge back to contemporary Italy. They called it "Quarantena" ("the forty" in Italian). This is where the word "quarantine" comes from. The origin of the methods currently being used in much of the world to fight pandemics have their origins in the Islamic world.

Allah says in the Quran: "Who saves one human life, it is as if he has saved all mankind" - (5:32).

Even today Ibn Sina's method saves thousands, perhaps millions, of lives. Ma sha Allah, that is another legacy filled with barakah!

Note: Ibn Sina's full name was Abu Ali Al-Hussein Ibn Abdullah Ibn Sina. In the west he is also known by the Latin version of his name: Avicenna.

- Nullifiers of Salat

What is Salat?

- Salat is an Arabic word. Its lexical meaning is —

- ☐ Prayer

- ☐ Mercy

- ☐ Worship

- ☐ To bend down

- ☐ To seek forgiveness, etc.

In Persian Language Salat is called Namaz.

Importance of Salat

□ Compulsory Ibadat: In this regard Allah the Great says: “ Establish Salat and pay Zakat” 2: 110

□ The most important pillars of Islam: The Hadith says , “The Hadith says, Islam is founded on five pillars. These are – To bear testimony that there is no deity but Allah and Hazrat Muhammad(sm) is his servant and messenger, to establish salat, to pay Zakat, to perform Hajj and fast during the month of Ramadan.” (Bukhari, Tirmiji)

it is clear to us that the importance of Salat is beggar description. Salat is the best medium to build relationship between Allah and His slave.

Background

The concept of salah in Islam

1. Salah is one of the core means of building a relationship between Allah and His slaves. It helps Muslims remember Allah from the beginning of Salah to the end. Salah remind Muslims of the life hereafter.

That is why Prophet sm said “ salah is the distinguisher between a man and infidelity.

2. The more one's faith is strong, the more he will be steadfast in observing Allah's order. Salah helps Muslims to revive faith in Muslim's heart. Therefore, it has a direct impact on Muslims to be steadfast. Allah says :

“Surely prayer keeps (one) away from indecency and evil, and certainly the remembrance of Allah is the greatest, and Allah knows what you do”. 29: 45

3. M'adan bin Abi Talha narrated that I met Saqban R. I then asked him about a deed which will take me to Jannah or tell me the favorite deed to Allah. Then he remained silent, I asked him again, he remained silent for the third time. Then he said I asked Prophet sm about it. The Prophet sm replied “ you should perform many prostrations, because when you perform a single sijdah, Allah raises your status and forgive your sin. M'adan said then I came to Abu Dardah R. and asked him about it. He also told the same thing.

(Muslim, Tirmizi, Nasaee)

4. Salat is a means of knowing Allah and to be grateful to Him as well as maintain the right of lordship.

“Alhamdulillah” or all praises be to Allah is a mean to expressing Allah’s gratitude, and that he is greater than anything else.

Muslims say in salah “Allahuakbar” Allah is the greatest.

Then subhana rabbial a’la and subhana rabbial ajim is expression of men’s servant hood to Allah.

Here lies the Concept of my lord!

My Lord!!

My lord!!!!

5. Salat provides Muslims a consistent sense of Iman. Who does not have strong faith in Allah and the day of Judgment, will find salah a difficult task. That is why Allah says:

“You shall seek help through patience and the Prayers (Salat). This is difficult indeed, but not so for the reverent, who believe that they will meet their Lord; that to Him they ultimately return”.

2:45,46

وَاسْتَعِينُوا بِالصَّبْرِ وَالصَّلَاةِ ۚ وَإِنَّهَا لَكَبِيرَةٌ إِلَّا عَلَى الْخَاشِعِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ الَّذِينَ يَظُنُّونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُلَاقُوا رَبِّهِمْ وَأَنَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾

6. through Salah Muslims sins are forgiven. It is also a renewal of relationship with Allah.

Prophet sm said:

“the five time salah and from one Jumah to another Jumah are forgivers of all sins committed between them as long as he does not commit a major sin”.

(Ahmad, Hakim, Nasaee, Baihaqi)

7. Reviving the Mosque is a signs of Muslims' relation with Islam and other Muslims.

Allah says:

“The mosques of God shall be visited and maintained by such as believe in God and the Last Day, establish regular prayers, and practice regular charity, and fear none (at all) except God. It is they who are expected to be on true guidance”. 9:18

Prophet said: the reward of a man's salah in mosque will be increased by twenty five times than his salah at home or in market”.

(Bukhari & Muslim, Muttafaqun Alai)

8. Trough salah Muslims gain strength

Allah says:

“Truly man was created very impatient. If touched by adversity, despondent. If blessed by wealth, he is stingy. Except those who pray (salah).
70:19-22

Rules of Salah

- Farz of Salah
- Wajib of Salah
- Sunnah of Salah
- Mustahab of Salah
- Nullifiers of Salah

6 farz before salah

1. Purification from hadath (something requiring wudu' or ghusl):

If one is not in a state of wudu', one has to perform wudu' before performing salat. If one is junub (impure due to sexual intercourse or semen discharge) or if the menstrual or postnatal bleeding of a woman has stopped, such a person has to take ghusl before salat.

2. Purification from najasat (substances that Islam prescribes as dirty):

A person who is going to offer salat has to clean najasat from his body, clothes, and the place where he is going to offer salat.

3. Covering awrah:

Those parts of a person's body that are haram for him (or her) to leave uncovered during salat and/or whenever in company, and which are equally haram for others to look at, are called awrah parts. The awrah of a man refers to the part of the body from his navel up to lower parts of his knees. As for a woman, her entire body, except her face and hands, is awrah.

4. Facing the qiblah:

One must face the qiblah (the direction toward the Kaaba) when performing salat.

5. Time:

One must perform salat within its prescribed time.

6. Niyyah (intention):

One has to make intention in one's heart before entering salat. Only verbal utterance of the niyyah of salat is not considered niyyah. To make niyyah for salat means to pass through the heart its name, time, qiblah, and to follow the imam (when performing salat in congregation). Niyyah is made when saying the opening takbir.

B. The Arkaan of Salat: 6

1. Takbir Tahrimah (the opening takbir):

It means saying Allahu akbar to enter salat. No other word to replace it is acceptable.

2. Qiyam (standing):

Qiyam means to stand when one is performing salat. He who is too ill to stand performs salat in sitting position. If he is too ill to sit, he lies down on his back and performs it through gestures in place of physical movements.

Salah sitting on chair : its ok when it is advised by the Doctor.

3. Qiraat:

It means reciting a chapter (surah) or verse (ayah) from the Qur'an al-karim in salat.

4. Ruku:

It means bowing and putting the hands on the knees on completion of qiraat. Subhana Rabbiyal Azim- ‘Glory be to Allah who is my Lord, the Greatest’ is the tasbeeh of Ruku.

5. Sajda:

It means prostrating oneself after ruku. Subhana rabbiyal A’la- ‘Glory be to Allah My Lord, the Most High’ is the tasbeeh of Sajda.

6. Qa’ da al-akhira [last sitting]:

It means sitting in the last rak’at (each unit of salat is called a rak’at) as long as it would take one to recite the prayer at-tahiyyat.
